EXPLORING NEW DIGITAL WORLDS.

FIELD RESEARCH CHALLENGES IN PANDEMIC TIME

How is data
created during a pandemic?

How can digital environments
be considered as a tool?

How have researchers
faced
pandemic
restrictions?

HERA

Humanities in the European Research Area

This webinar will present the methodological challenges, creative responses and readjustments that the different HERA projects have faced in order to be able to carry out alternative ways of conducting fieldwork during the Covid-19 restrictions.
