PAUL RICŒUR AND THE CHALLENGES OF AUTONOMY

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

JOHANN MICHEL (UNIVERSITY OF POITIERS; EHESS, PARIS)
SOPHIE VLACOS (UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW)

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3-4-5, 2022

BISLA - Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts
Grösslingová 2469/53, Bratislava, Slovakia

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE:
Cristina Vendra (Slovak Academy of Sciences)
Dagmar Kusa (BISLA)
Paolo Furia (University of Turin)
Jaroslava Vydrova (Slovak Academy of Sciences)
Robert Karul (Slovak Academy of Sciences)

The conference is supported by the grant agency APVV within the project Philosophical Anthropology in the Context of Current Crises of Symbolic Structures, APVV-20-0137, and by the project Culture and Empathy of the Czech and the Slovak Academy of Sciences, SAV-21-06. With friendly support of the Society for RICŒUR STUDIES and the Fonds RICŒUR

PAUL RICŒUR AND THE CHALLENGES OF AUTONOMY

OPENING

Thursday, November 3, 2022

Venue:
BISLA – Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, Grösslingová 2469/53, Bratislava

16.00 - 16.45
Registration
16.45 - 17.00
Welcome

17.00 - 17.15
Opening Session [Room: Johnson]
The Challenges of Autonomy and Autonomy as a Challenge
Cristina Vendra (Slovak Academy of Sciences, SAS, Bratislava)

17.15 - 17.45
Session 1 [Room: Johnson]- Chair: Cristina Vendra
Ethical and Moral Autonomy with Regard to Live and to Die
Nel Van Den Haak (Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam)
Political Autonomy and Political Dependence
Paolo Furia (University of Turin)

DAY 1

Friday, November 4, 2022

Venue:
BISLA – Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, Grösslingová 2469/53, Bratislava

09.30 - 10.30
Session 2 [Room: Johnson]- Chair: Robert Karul
Le problème de l'autonomie dans "l'empirique de la volonté" chez Paul Ricoeur
Emanuele Curcio (University of Rome "Tor Vergata")
Parole et autonomie
Monica Gorza (Sorbonne Université – Paris IV)

10.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break

11.00 - 12.00
Session 3 [Room: Johnson]- Chair: Jaroslava Vydrova
My Brother's Keeper: From Individual Moral Autonomy to Collective Political Autonomy
Andreea Deciu Ritivoi (Carnegie Mellon University)
Which autonomy for the dividual? Paul Ricoeur's contribution for reflecting on identity and responsibility in a datafied society
Guido Gorgoni (University of Padua)

12.00 - 14.00
Lunch

14.00 - 15.30
Session 4 [Room: Johnson]- Chair: Lukas Siegel
"Narrated" autonomy
Tomas Domingo Moratalla
(Complutense University of Madrid)
"Careful" autonomy, prelude to digital citizenship
Agustín Domingo Moratalla
(University of Valencia)
"Relational" autonomy
Lydia Feito Grande
(Complutense University of Madrid)

Session 4.1 [Room: Tatarka] - Chair: Paolo Furia
Norms of trust
Barna Kovacs
(Sapientia – Hungarian University of Transylvania)
Y a-t-il de la liberté dans le pardon? Du pardon et de son horizon
René Dentz
(Université catholique pontificale de Minas)
Autonomie et hétéronomie dans l'expérience du pardon
Martin Leiner (University of Jena)

KEYNOTES

Friday, November 4, 2022

Venue: Zichy Palace, Ventúrska 265, Bratislava

15.30 - 16.30
Coffee Break and walking from Bisla to Zichy Palace

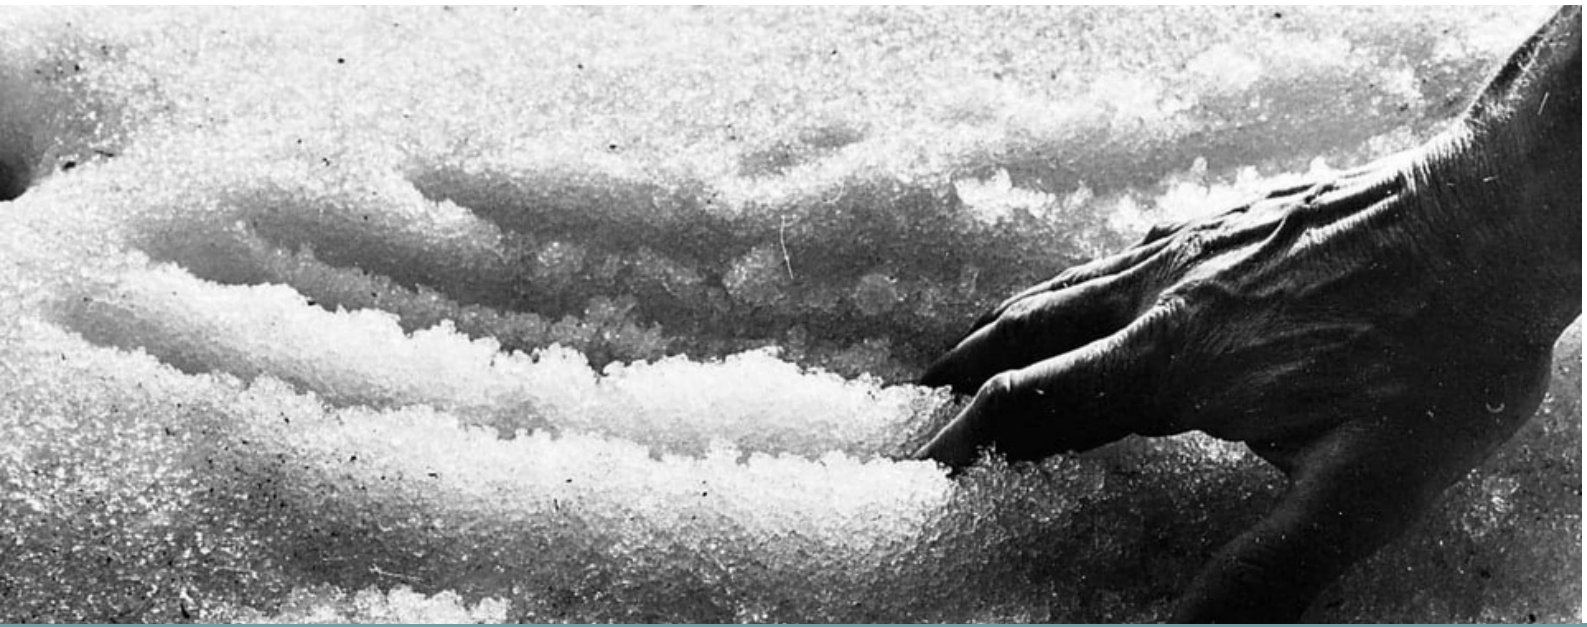

16.30- 17.30
Keynote - French - Chair: Cristina Vendra
Du texte à l'image: l'autonomie herméneutique en question
Johann Michel (University of Poitiers, EHESS-Paris)

17.30-17.45
Coffee Break

17.45-18.45
Keynote - English - Chair: Dagmar Kusa
Critique, Imagination and the Problem of Autonomy
Sophie Vlacos (University of Glasgow)

19.00
Reception

DAY 2

Saturday, November 5, 2022

Venue:
BISLA – Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, Grösslingová 2469/53, Bratislava

09.30 - 10.30
Session 5 [Room: Johnson]– Chair: Jaroslava Vydrova
Is Self-Determination an Expression of Autonomy? The Analysis of Decision in Ricoeur's Philosophy of the Will Jakub Capek (Charles University of Prague)
Autonomy as a Task of Education. Hermeneutic and Pragmatism in Dialogue
Francesca D'Alessandris (University of Modena – Reggio Emilia)

10.30 - 11.00
Coffee Break

11.00 - 12.00
Session 6 [Room: Johnson]– Chair: Cristina Vendra
The Semantic Autonomy in the Ricœurian Philosophy
Marco Sechi (University of Cagliari)
Hermeneutics of the Philosophy of Voyage: A Ricoeurian Conception of Autonomy
Güncel Onkal (Maltepe University; Slovak Accademy of Sciences) and Deniz Kanay (Maltepe University)

12.00 - 14.00
Lunch

14.00 - 15.30
Session 7 [Room: Johnson]– Chair: Dagmar Kusa
magination, Narrativity, and Trauma: A Reflection on Pandemics
Geoffrey Dierckxsens (Czech Academy of Sciences), Petr Kouba (Czech Academy of Sciences)
Cut-outs: forgetting and violence in Arendt, Ricoeur, and Benjamin
Paul A. Custer (Lenoir-Rhyne University)
The idem-ipse distinction, lived time and autonomy
Robert Grzywacz (Jesuit University Ignatianum in Krakow)

15.30-16.00
Coffee Break

16.00-17.30
Session 8 [Room: Johnson] – Chair: Lukas Siegel
Autonomy as the Pillar of Just Society
Dagmar Kusa (BISLA)
On the "Pathic" Dimension of Narrative Autonomy
Silvia Pierosara (University of Macerata)
«An omnipotent stepping back». Paul Ricoeur between narcissism, passivity and grace
Giulia Zaccaro (University of Perugia)

17.30-17.45
Conclusion

The conference is supported by the grant agency APVV within the project Philosophical Anthropology in the Context of Current Crises of Symbolic Structures, APVV-20-0137, and by the project Culture and Empathy of the Czech and the Slovak Academy of Sciences, SAV-21-06

BISLA Liberal Arts College
Filosofický ústav AV ČR Institute of Philosophy
APVV
with Friendly Support of: The Society for Ricoeur Studies
fondsricoeur.fr